Dear Parents,

We are happy to meet you through the 2nd letter of the current academic year of our school.

1. EDITORIAL

25th of April, 2015 witnessed the Himalayan tragedy where tremors jolt Nepal and parts of Indian sub-continent. The series of aftershocks and Everest avalanche worsen the situation. On one side world is fighting on pity issues but here people are overcoming natural disaster.

Friends, it's true that natural disasters are beyond our control. Our prayers are with the victims of this tragic blow. Now our concern is what are natural disasters? How and what can be done during these crucial hours? Keeping this in mind after summer vacation AIS has planned to focus through drills, on teaching our students all about it; in special 'Disaster Management Classes'.

Dear students vacation is the time for all to do something productive and creative, you have ample of time to develop your potentials into skills and as a students of AIS, we expect you to utilize your time in a productive manner and with every conduct of yours, develop your personality and outlook.

HAPPY HOLIDAYS !!!!!
